SUMMER READING FOLDER TAGS

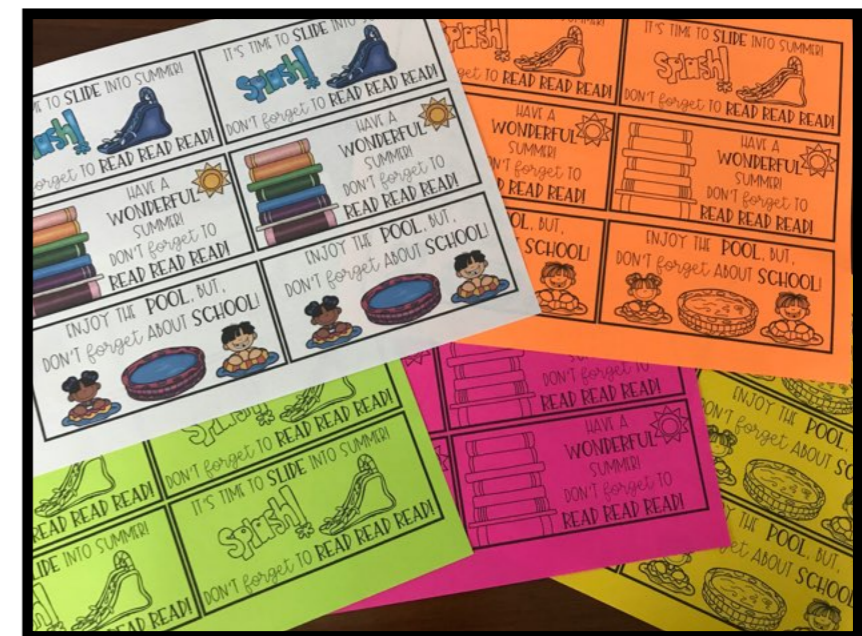

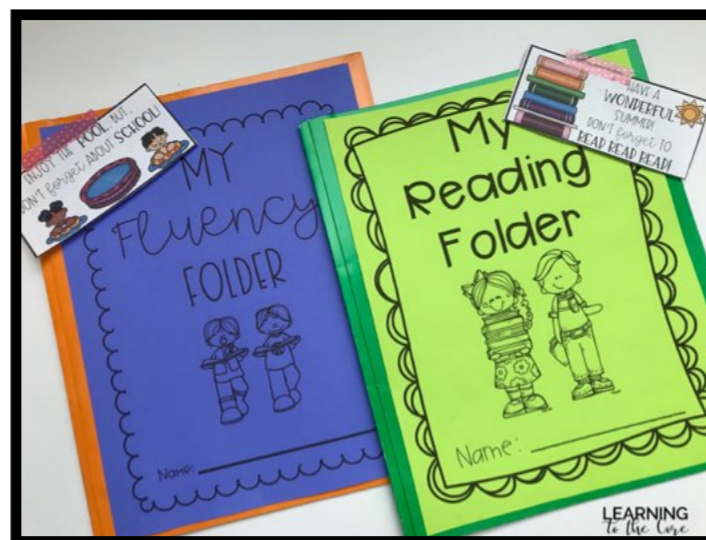

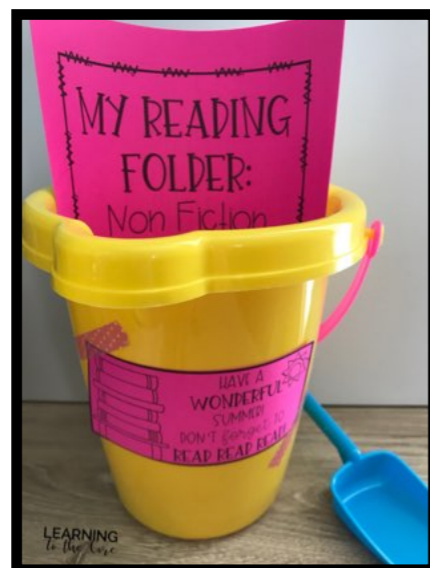

(These work great with my Fluency Folders & Guided Reading Folders, but can also simply be attached to your end of the year gifts, like a book!)

Readers always love finally getting the chance to take home their own reading folders. Often readers ask throughout the year, "Do we get to take this home??" The answer is always: "Yes, but not yet." Well, the end of the year is finally the perfect time! YAY! This makes the perfect little gift for readers (you can add in some other fun things like crayons, pencils, pointers, etc.). The best part is that you know you're providing your readers with some text they can actually read, over the summer, while they aren't in school. Even if they just pick it up once throughout the summer, it's a win!

All you need to do:

Print out the tags of your choice. I included color for white paper or b&w which looks great on bright paper. Then attach it to the front of your readers' folders. Washi tape, staple or whatever is easiest for you at this time of year!

enjoy! Aylin
