

WINTER COMPREHENSION STORIES {FREEBIE}

Name: _____

Patty Penguin

Patty is a penguin. It is cold all day by her. She wants to keep warm. Patty likes to put on her boots. Her boots keep her feet warm. She has a pretty bow, too. The bow is just for fun. It does not keep her warm.

Let's Think About It

1. Who is this story all about?
2. What keeps Patty warm?
3. Why does Patty have a bow?

WINTER COMPREHENSION STORIES

These passages are great to use with kindergartners or readers who struggle with comprehension. I included a color version + b&w version, in case you aren't able to print in color. I recommend reading the stories to your students (unless they are capable of reading on their own). Then, discuss the story as a group. After that, students can reply to the questions on their own or with your assistance. The questions included are simple- the answers can be copied directly from the text. These passages work well during guided reading groups, whole group or even 1 on 1 if you have parent volunteers in your room.

HAPPY READING!
